Easter Sunday Jesus has been raised to new life. Alleluia! Thank you, God, for the gift of your Son!

On this holy day, and in this season of renewal, we pray in thanksgiving for the many blessings You give us. May our words and deeds today, and always, serve as reminders of the transformative power of Your love. Amen.

There is no School of Christian Living Easter Sunday.

Blessing of Easter Baskets will take place at the Easter Vigil and on Easter Sunday at the 10 AM Mass.

Please note there is no 8:00 AM Mass on Easter Sunday.

POLISH NATIONAL UNION Thank you goes out to everyone who contributed to our Lenten Food Drive. Many people and families will benefit from your generosity.. All of the donations were delivered to the Focus On Renewal Food Bank for distribution to individuals and families in our area. May God bless you for your generosity!!

PARISH COMMITTEE MEETING The Parish Committee will meet Sunday April 30 after the 10 AM.

BENEDICTION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT NEW YEAR HOLY HOUR As a Eucharistic people, adoration of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament focuses our attention on the love of God that permeates our lives and our world. On Saturday, May 13, our parish will host a Holy Hour beginning at 10:00 AM. All are welcome!

IMPORTANT NOTE REGARDING AMBIT ENERGY First, please let me say Thank You for being a customer with Ambit Energy. Ambit was purchased by Vistra Corporation a few years ago. Vistra has begun raising the rates for electricity when it is time for a customer to renew. When you receive your renewal notice from Ambit Energy, it would be best NOT to renew. Simply call Duquesne Light at 412-393-7100 or West Penn Power at 800-686-0021.

Let them know that you want to return to them as your supplier. Please feel free to call me for any questions or help you may need. We miss you and care about you very much. Debbie and Roger Stutzman 412-849-8894

2023 SUPPORT ENVELOPES FOR HOLY TRINITY HAVE ARRIVED!!! Thanks to all who continued to support Holy Trinity Parish through the first quarter of this year. We are happy to announce that the donation envelopes for 2023 have finally arrived and are available on tables in the entrance to the church. If you would like to have a set of envelopes for the year please see Paulette or Fr. Mike. We appreciate your generosity and your support of the parish.

VOLUNTEER(S) NEEDED The parish outreach via Facebook and YouTube is a valuable asset for parishioners who are not able to participate in Mass. It is also a valuable tool to share and a way to invite others, who may not be participating in the life of a church, to visit our parish for worship and consider joining in our community life of prayer. We are so grateful to Justin and Joe for installing camera;s and all of the technology to make this all possible. Since this is becoming a regular part of our life, we are also looking for one or two members of the parish who would be willing to learn how to live stream the Mass in times when Justin is not available. He has made the process as straightforward as possible and will teach and mentor all who would like to learn. Please contact Justin or Fr. Mike to learn more about this opportunity to serve our parish family.

AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION Most loving Jesus, I adore You in the Most Blessed Sacrament, in Which You are truly present. I love You above all things and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot receive You sacramentally, I ask You to come spiritually into my heart and touch my soul. I embrace You and unite myself with You; may I never be separated from You. In flame my heart with the fire of Your love, my Lord and Savior.

Easter 2023 As we celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord for the next seven weeks we will mark the Ascension forty days after Easter and conclude the feast with Pentecost on the fiftieth day after Easter. We begin the deepening realization of, and reflection upon, the meaning of the gift of life we have received in God's raising Jesus from the dead so that we might have eternal life.

St. Paul invites us to live in this passing world with our hearts set on the world that will never end. This week let us try to open our hearts to a felt sense of what a difference it makes that the tomb is empty, that Jesus is alive, that he allows us to recognize him in the breaking of bread, and that he missions us to proclaim this Good News.

As we begin each day this week, we can simply thank God for our being alive today. Even more, we can thank God for the life that Jesus won for us. Throughout the day, and at different brief moments, we can remember that this is Easter Week and ask to live more freely today, more gratefully. We can name the grace in our own terms and in the context of what we are experiencing, what gets us discouraged or what gives us life. Overall, we want to live the freedom we have been given. If death has no hold on us, so many of our fears would melt away. If we realized our ultimate home is in heaven, our spirits would be lighter and we would walk around more gratefully.

So, as we go through this week, we can let ourselves believe in the Resurrection that was won for us. "Lord, I believe in the gift of life you have given me in the death and resurrection of your Son, Jesus." We can say this act of faith, or sing any of the wonderful Easter songs in the back of our minds, as many times as it takes to let ourselves feel the effects of Easter. (Adapted from Creighton OnLine Ministries)

Scripture: "Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. For we know that since Christ was raised from the dead, he cannot die again; death no longer has mastery over him. The death he died, he died to sin once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God. In the same way, count yourselves dead to sin but alive to God in Christ Jesus." Romans 6:8-11

Reflection and Action Item: Easter is more than one day; it is a season of joy and alleluia! It is a time to celebrate the Resurrection of our savior, Jesus Christ. It is a time to rejoice in the gift of encounter. Plan to use the seven full weeks after Easter Sunday to help people encounter Christ anew. Take time to encounter the Lord anew yourself. Continue to read the Bible and pray each day. In these activities we make the time this Easter season to encounter the Resurrected Christ anew. Then we continue to bring the light of Christ to areas where darkness and sin by spreading joy, especially in our parishes and families.

May the glory and the promise of this joyous time of year bring peace and happiness to you and those you hold most dear. And may Christ, Our Risen Savior, always be there by your side to bless you most abundantly and be your loving guide.— Author Unknown
