Holy Trinity Sunday Today is not a theological feast, but rather a celebration that our God reveals to us the three persons: a Father, Jesus and the Holy Spirit. The Gospel is from John 3:16, which we see on banners at sporting events: "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life."

We can relate with each person of the Trinity this week, to carry forward today's celebration. In prayer to the Father, in our own words, especially giving thanks for the gift of all creation This prayer of thanksgiving is what every logging parent wants to hear, just being grateful has the power to renew and deepen the relationship!. Talking with Jesus, friend to friend this week can be a great grace. Listening to his words in Scripture reveal to us all that he has heard from the Father. Finally, asking the Holy Spirit to fill our heart with the fire of his love, that the Spirit might renew us and help in the mission of renewing the face of the earth.

God our Father, you sent Word of truth into the world and gave the Spirit of power and might to make known to the human race your wondrous mystery, grant us, as we profess our faith, a deeper knowledge and experience of your love and your glory. We make this prayer in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. AMEN

PRAY FOR THE SICK Please pray for all those who are infirmed or home bound. In a special way we pray for Joann, Knox, Nick, Ida and Laura.

AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION Most loving Jesus, I adore You in the Most Blessed Sacrament, in Which You are truly present. I love You above all things and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot receive You sacramentally, I ask You to come spiritually into my heart and touch my soul. I embrace You and unite myself with You; may I never be separated from You. In flame my heart with the fire of Your love, my Lord and Savior.

WHIRLWIND SPIRIT Whirlwind Spirit of God, Roar through our timidities and fears, Shake the foundations of our ill-placed securities, Sweep away the cobwebs of our apathy, Blow down the walls that separate us, one from another. Then into all our empty spaces, breathe re-strengthened courage to challenge injustice, renewed belief in the urgency of our vocation, revitalized passion to change our lifestyles, re-dedication to speak only words that build and unite. Let gentle breeze and still small voice become in us today mighty wind and loud proclamation. Make of us a Pentecost people! Amen. Kathleen O'Brien/CAFOD
